

Obligations of the owner

Food

The owner of a pet must put at his disposal:

balanced food and in sufficient quantity to keep it healthy,
fresh water renewed and protected from frost in a container kept clean.

Care

In case of injury or sickness of the animal, the owner must provide the necessary care for his recovery.

Shelter

A pet should not be locked in a room:

without ventilation,
without light,
insufficiently heated or overheated,
and under conditions incompatible with its physiological needs.

Attached

An animal kept tied (guard dog in particular) must wear a collar and a chain proportioned to its size and its strength,

which is not too heavy,
and that does not hinder his movements.

The chain must:

secure the fastener for potential visitors,

slide on a horizontal cable or be fixed to a device that prevents winding or immobilization of the animal,

be at least 2.5 meters long for a sliding chain or 3 meters for chains inserted at any other fastening device.

Warning :

a force or choke collar is forbidden.

Transport

No animal should be locked in a car that does not have a ventilation system.

If the animal remains in a stationary vehicle:

all arrangements must be made for the animal to have enough air,
the vehicle must be parked in the shade.

Contact person

In case of abuse, gather as much evidence as possible including photos, and contact:
the authorities (gendarmerie, police station, services of the prefecture ...),
the veterinary services of the Department of Population Protection,
an animal welfare association.
